Twelfth Night @Kenmore. Historic Kenmore serves as the backdrop as we meet revelers to hear their hopes and fears before they go inside for the Twelfth Night ball. This year, three dramatic scenes will be performed outdoors. The audience will move to three different locations near the house to watch each scene so bringing chairs is not necessary. The house will be closed on these evenings. Performances will be held January 8-10. Masks are required and social distancing will be maintained. Purchasing tickets in advance is required. Visit <https://kenmore.org/holidayevents/> for more information and to get tickets. Performance will be held in time slots from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. on January 8, 9, and 10.
